LONG ISLAND CITY

36-20 Northern Blvd, Long Island City, NY 11101 - Long Island City is located in Queens, not to be confused with Long Island which is NOT part of NYC, and is just one subway stop from mid-town Manhattan! Home to artists' havens, comedy clubs, public sports fields, Manhattan based dining outposts, dance parties and interactive art displays. The former warehouse buildings have given way to modern public green spaces, shops, lofts and corner parks. The weekend market at the Long Island City Flea is a hub where local businesses from cocktail bars and global caterers to flower shops and furniture dealers put their samples on display and attract visitors from the 5 boroughs!
